Lott 2900

A vibrant, high-angle photograph of a swimming pool. The pool is a bright, clear blue, with a curved, light-colored stone or concrete edge. It is nestled within a lush, green landscape. In the foreground, large, spiky green plants, possibly agaves or yuccas, frame the pool on both sides. In the background, a tall, slender evergreen tree stands prominently against a bright blue sky with wispy white clouds. To the right, a castle with multiple towers and red-tiled roofs is visible, partially obscured by more greenery. The overall scene is bright and sunny, suggesting a warm, pleasant day.
